

President's Message
2014 NCSRC Symposium

Talking Points

- Engagement
- Volume to Value Shift
- Professionalism

Engagement

- Know the Current Healthcare Environment
- Ask Questions
- Be Part of the Solution

Volume to Value Shift

- Out with Old.....In with the New
- How to Make the Shift?
 - Outside of the Box Thinking
- Make Sure Others Know Your Worth

Professionalism

- AARC Membership
- Be Active in the NCSRC
- Obtain your RRT Credential
- Education, Education, Education

THE PHIL AWARD

Recognition of Outstanding Respiratory Therapists

Thank You To Our
HOSPITAL PARTNERS
For Helping Us Recognize Excellence
In Respiratory Therapy

Established by The FACES Foundation
Family And Caregiver Education and Support

[A non-profit 501(c)(3) organization]

The FACES Foundation recognizes our North Carolina PHIL Award Honorees' dedication and honors them for the exemplary care they provide every day that allows patients to 'breathe easy'.

Carolinas Medical Center –
Union, Monroe, NC

2013 PHIL Honoree
Chanda Backey, RRT, RCP

2012 PHIL Honoree
Elizabeth 'Libby' Watts, RRT, RCP

In Memoriam of
2011 PHIL Honoree
Candie Blanton, RRT, RCP

Carolinas Medical Center –
Mercy, Charlotte, NC

2014 PHIL Honoree
Joe Gilbert, RRT, RCP

2013 PHIL Honoree
Karen Ryan, RRT, RCP

We look forward to future PHIL Award Honorees at:

Carolinas Medical Center – University, Charlotte, NC
Carolinas Medical Center – NorthEast, Concord, NC